“Courage is about believing in your work and maintaining a commitment to making a difference.”

Dr Caroline Fleay has been an active campaigner for the rights of asylum seekers and refugees in Australia over the past fifteen years. As Senior Lecturer at the Centre for Human Rights Education, Caroline teaches human rights and conducts research into the experiences of asylum seekers and refugees.