“Excellence is not about being the best, it is doing your best with the right attitude.”

Kyra Bonney was the first Indigenous woman to win the WA Chamber of Minerals and Energy ‘Outstanding Woman in Resources’ Award (2014) for improving opportunities for Indigenous people in the resource sector. A Curtin alumnus, Kyra runs her own consultancy business, is the youngest member of the WA Government Aboriginal Lands Trust and is Deputy Chairperson of an Indigenous youth leadership program.

Visit curtin.edu.au/livingourvalues

Living our values.
Make tomorrow better.